

Tablescapes' farm tables were topped with shantung silk runners from Private Label Linens and table numbers by Ruby the Fox.

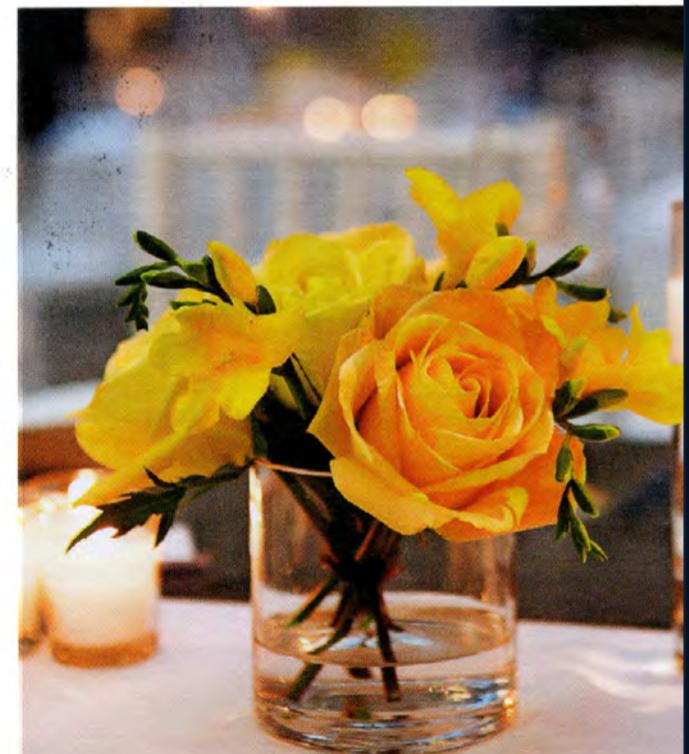

The vanilla cake with chocolate ganache and strawberry buttercream by Amy Beck Cake Design

NITA PRASAD &
ARVIND NAVARATNAM

July 5, 2012
Harold Washington Library
Photos by
Jennifer Kathryn Photography

THE COUPLE Arvind fell in love with Nita in New York City and asked for her hand in marriage with an elaborate scavenger hunt.

THE DETAILS Greatest Expectations Special Events & Weddings attended to the day's elegant details. Entertaining Company customized an infused water bar and a menu including mango matchstick salad, sea bass, kadhai paneer and chocolate chip cookies. THE PARTY The couple danced to an "At Last/You Are My Sona" remix (the latter song is from the movie Kabhi Khushi Kabhie Gham...). Sri Lankan wedding cake was overnighted from India. Each tiny piece was wrapped in gold foil and gifted to guests. —CM

A colorful centerpiece by HMR Designs

The couple's breathtaking mandap adorned with lush flowers and candles was illuminated with lighting by Sound Investment.

Arvind and Nita posed for photos at the JW Marriott Chicago, the hotel that hosted them and most of their guests.